Tapas: Tantalizing Small Plates From The Mediterranean

Synopsis

Small-plate dining is a Mediterranean tradition that's become popular throughout the world. And no wonder: it allows you to sample a great variety of foods in a smart and healthy way. Plus, if you put several of these tapas together, you've got a mouthwatering meal with a tempting array of tastes and ingredients. Create beautiful authentic dishes with confidence, using this selection of triple-tested and easy-to-follow recipes organized by region. From Spanish Pan-Seared Scallops with Anchovy Butter to tantalizing Italian antipasto or bite-size Veal Bracciole to Greek Dolmades and Mini-Chicken Souvlakia, they're flavorful, enticing, and delicious!

Customer Reviews

I read this book in Barnes & Noble, and purchased it on (almost 50% off). The recipes are definitely Mediterranean style, from tapas to mezze, it's a great choice if you are into these small plates. BTW one good thing about it is that most of the recipes are easy to follow, and very healthy (unlike American cooking, this book contains only a few fried plates or stuff with cheese). 5 star.

Love the book. I just visited Spain and wanted to replicate some of the tapas recipes and this book has good recipes and beautiful illustrations.

Just what I wanted.
