Customer Reviews

It is the only guide book I could find for this collection. The way the information is listed is a little confusing and takes some thinking and cross-referencing to understand. And, the copy I received had a number of pictures that were blurred but could still be used as an identification reference. But, considering that this book is apparently the only one published for a collector series that is no longer made, it is useful and worth the price.

This was for my mom, she collects denim days. She loves the book. Now she can see what to look for next.

Gave all the information needed to label all items. This book was a God send!!!!

The item was received as advertised and was given as a gift.

Just what I needed.
