Customer Reviews

Big Book of Cupcakes is a great resource for making cupcakes in cute, clever and classic ways. It's a thick book filled with more than 175 recipes with photos for each one. And, if you don't bake much from scratch, you'll be pleased to know that every recipe also explains how to create it from a boxed cake mix. The Big Book of Cupcakes gives the background on cupcakes whose popularity started with children's parties, progressing to the current ones which are clearly designed for adult palates, with flavors like Mango Jalapeno. Four basic cake recipes and five frosting recipes are included as a jumping-off point for the cupcakes in the book and they even teach you how to frost cupcakes to get different effects. I loved the idea of mixing yogurt with whipped topping for frosting or topping frosted cupcakes with tiny, cute cookies or candies. Betty Crocker Big Book of Cupcakes also includes recipes by six baking bloggers who each contributed excellent cupcake suggestions. The Simply Delicious chapter offers a range of scrumptious cupcakes -- from classics like Red Velvet (with marshmallow buttercream) to the more current flavors like Orange Soda, or Ginger and Peach. Bake Sale Favorites include Root Beer Float cupcakes, baked in ice cream cones and topped with straws, and Watermelon Slice cupcakes, plus many more best-sellers for your next bake sale. There are lots of fun ideas in the Kid's Party area, like Mini Cupcake Banana Splits or the adorable Campfire S'mores cupcakes, which have toasted mini-marshmallows on pretzel sticks cooking over a red and yellow hard candy "fire". The Soft Pink Bunny cupcake and 4th of July Fireworks Towers are a couple of the treats in the Holiday area.
